

Certificate IV in Youth Justice — CHC41908

Australian Workplace Training offers Certificate IV in Youth Justice in 2 delivery modes.
Online (E-Learning) and Externally

This qualification covers youth justice workers who supervise young people who have been directed by the justice system to be in the care and direction of authorised community and/or government agencies.

The Supervision will be managed through a range of community and institution-based programs designed to meet the social and behavioural, health, welfare, developmental and protection needs of young people.

Occupational titles may include:

- Juvenile Justice Officer
- Mentors
- Secure Environment Worker
- Unit Coordinator/Manager
- Visits Coordinator
- Youth Justice Officer
- Youth Residential Worker
- Youth Worker (Juvenile Justice)

An interview with a Trainer will be arranged prior to your enrolment. In this interview any difficulty you might experience with your training will be discussed, these may be language, literacy or physical disabilities. If you have any concerns or special needs please discuss them with the trainer during the interview as support could be available for you.

External and online students study this course at their own pace, however it is expected the course will be completed in under twelve months, it can be completed earlier depending on the individual. Students work at home with self paced units and have access to a trainer either face to face or by phone, fax, correspondence and email for assistance. Students are required to attend block training sessions, as well as a monthly contact with their trainer.

A current Police Certificate (within the last 12 months) will be required before work placement is commenced. It is your responsibility to apply and pay any costs associated with the Police Clearance. A current Police Clearance is a requirement of industry.

During the course 'work experience' is to be arranged by the student at a suitable venue(s). At the end of the course you will be expected to have completed a minimum of 100 hours of 'work experience' to enable the assessment of your application of skills and ability to implement your training under working conditions. Please discuss this with your trainer at your interview.

The qualification is achieved by 'successfully completing' all the suggested units overleaf. This can be achieved by participating in training sessions, completing assignments and by demonstrating your ability by putting the learning into practice under working conditions during the 'work experience'. Skills Recognition is available.
