

Certificate IV in Disability – CHC40308

Australian Workplace Training offers Certificate IV in Disability in 2 delivery modes.
Online (E-Learning) and Externally

This qualification addresses work in residential group homes, training resource centres, day respite centres and open employment services, other community settings and clients' homes. These workers apply knowledge and skills to provide training and support to people with disabilities to enhance their ability to achieve greater levels of independence, self reliance and community participation.

Occupational titles may include:

- Disability Support Officer
- Behavioural Support Officer
- Disability Officer—Day Support
- Social Educator/Trainer
- Lifestyle Support Office
- Employment Coordinator (Disability)

An interview with a Trainer will be arranged prior to your enrolment. In this interview any difficulty you might experience with your training will be discussed, these may be language, literacy or physical disabilities. If you have any concerns or special needs please discuss them with the trainer during the interview as support could be available for you.

External and Online students study this course at their own pace, however it is anticipated the course will be completed in approximately twelve months, it can be completed earlier depending on the individual. Students work at home with self paced units and have access to a trainer either face to face or by phone, fax, correspondence and email for assistance. Students are required to attend block training for First Aid, Manual Handling and Personal Care training as well as monthly contact with their trainer.

A current Police Certificate (within the last 12 months) will be required before work placement is commenced. It is your responsibility to apply and pay any costs associated with the Police Clearance. A current Police Clearance is a requirement of industry.

During the course 'work experience' is to be arranged by the student at a suitable venue(s). At the end of the course you will be expected to have completed a minimum of 100 hours of 'work experience' to enable the assessment of your ability to implement your training under working conditions. Please discuss this with your trainer at your interview.

The qualification is achieved by 'successfully completing' all the suggested units. This can be achieved by participating in training sessions, completing assignments and by demonstrating your ability by putting the learning into practice under working conditions during the 'work experience'. Skills Recognition is available.
