

"Having done book keeping all my life, I wanted to formalise my qualification and move on to something that was challenging. The bonus to me is that I am able to study locally and have access to the same resources and information that city based students do. University study is very accessible for people who want to learn, you just need to apply yourself."

Glenda McInerney – Associate Degree in Accounting

Don't think you can go to uni? Think again.

Study at UniSA Mount Gambier in 2012.

Find out about your study options at our information sessions.

Foundation Studies

This one year full-time preparatory program will give you the grounding and confidence you need as well as the eligibility to undertake an undergraduate degree program.

Information session: Monday 21 November 2011, 7pm, Gambier Hotel

Business/Accounting/Finance/Management

Find out about our Business/Accounting/Management programs available for study in Mount Gambier. It's an opportunity for you to explore options for up-skilling and how you can become a business leader for tomorrow's world.

Information session: Tuesday 22 November, 7pm, Gambier Hotel

Applications for study in 2012 close 2 December 2011.
For more information please visit unisa.edu.au/cre

University of South Australia