

Manufacturing

Thinking about a career in the Manufacturing industry?

The Manufacturing Industry is diverse, covering food and beverage manufacturing, wood and paper manufacturing, metal product manufacturing and machinery and equipment manufacturing. There are many job opportunities in the industry in large and small businesses including qualified trades roles and entry level labour positions.

Some examples of the types of jobs and career opportunities that exist in this industry are:

Administration	Human Resources Officer
Import / Export Officer	Sales Assistant
Logistics / Transport	Quality Assurance
Product Tester	Laboratory Assistant
Packer	Fashion Designer
Clothing patternmaker	Jeweller
Locksmith	Cabinet maker
Interior Designer	Upholster
Blacksmith	Metal Fabrication
Maintenance Fitter	Fitter & Machinist
Mechanical Engineer	Production Supervisor
Welder	Boilermaker
Plant Engineer	Process Worker
Chemical Engineer	Electrician
Instrument Fitter	Aviation Maintenance Worker
Boat Builder	Scientist

For more information about the possibilities in the Manufacturing Industry including personal requirements, examples of tasks performed, education & training requirements and types of work opportunities try visiting:

www.mskills.com.au

www.makeit.net.au

www.misac.com.au

www.myskills.net.au

www.jobguide.dest.gov.au

www.myfuture.edu.au

If you need more information the Career Development Centre has a wide range of resources available including information on local training and labour market opportunities.

“Key employment in this sector in this region is in food, motor vehicle and motor vehicle parts retailing.”

Top Five Occupations:

Structural steel & welding Trades workers
Metal fitters & machinists
Product assembler
Packers
Production managers

Common Attributes for the Manufacturing Industry:

Practical & Manual activities
Accuracy and precision
Good hand eye coordination
Communication
Technical

Career Development Centre