the roles. Additionally the SKILLED selection process takes into account wider aspects such as cultural fit (ensuring the person would fit into the environment and culture of the client site) and an understanding and acceptance to work under the guidelines of the client.

The major phases of the recruitment process are as follows:

Written Application

Telephone Pre-Screen

Face to Face Interview

Skills Testing

Reference & Qualification Checks

Pre employment Testing (If required SKILLED is able to facilitate pre employment Medical and Drug & Alcohol testing if required.)

Permanent Employment for Temporary Staff

SKILLED specialises in supplying personnel on a temporary basis. Whilst the majority of personnel fall under a temporary labour hire arrangement, approximately 30% of its trades workforce are engaged as full time employees. This gives SKILLED an edge when recruiting for temporary assignments, as it is able to offer candidates a secure position and the benefits associated with permanent employment. By offering quality employees permanent employment, SKILLED is able to retain the best performers. Permanency gives the employee a level of security unusual to temporary and contract positions providing them with the benefits of flexibility and security.

Recruitment of Permanent Staff

SKILLED has developed a comprehensive recruitment methodology which has been adapted and refined after years of successful application. Prior to matching a suitable employee with the client's requirements, SKILLED will determine the competencies, qualifications and experience necessary for each specific role. The methodology includes advertising, pre-screening and assessments, which will be tailored according to the requirements of the client and the particular position. For example, it may include a Psychometric Assessment, Mechanical Reasoning Test and Numeracy & Literacy Test. Interviews and reference checks are a mandatory part of the process. SKILLED have the benefit of a national database and coverage. This means that a candidate can be sourced from interstate, even interviewed in their home state before being considered by the client.

SKILLED realise that in each of these divisions its clients will have varying needs and requirements. In order to provide you with the best services and solutions SKILLED has developed a flexible approach that allows you to select the scope of services that best suit your needs.
